VOL. VI. NO. 150.

CHICAGO, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 27, 1900.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

MISS BENNETT'S LAKESIDE.

High class racing in every sense of the word is what they are having at Washington Park, and those that were fortunate enough to see yesterday's fine program run off will not forget it in a hurry.

Of course the Lakeside Stakes at five furlongs with $1,500 added, for two-year-olds, was the principal attraction, simply because the two champion fillies of the west, Sofala and Miss Bennett, were to start in it, but there were other races that were much more interesting, and as a matter of fact the stake event furnished about the mildest contest of the day.

As carded, Miss Bennett and Sofala started in the stake and Sofala was backed by her owner, Barney Schreiber and the public in general, from 6 to 5 to odds on, but the filly ran a disappointing race—never being prominent and finishing last but three in a field of nine. Miss Bennett did not get away from the post as favorably as Sofala did and she also had an exceedingly rough journey, but this did not seem to bother her to any great extent, and, coming with a rush in the stretch, she won off by herself by two open lengths.

Taking this race as a criterion, Miss Bennett must be dubbed the champion two-year-old filly in the west, but still Barney Schreiber thinks Sofala can beat her and is willing to make a match and bet his money that way.

Barney was all at sea over the poor showing made by Sofala. He does not want to suspect Caywood, who rode her, of any wrong doing, and has implicit confidence in his trainer, "Dick" Williams, but still he will not "stand for" the showing the filly made yesterday and intends starting her again at an early date for his own satisfaction. On the other hand the Miss Bennett people claimed that their filly was not at her best in yesterday's race and will improve from it, so it seems that it would not be hard for the Washington Park officials to make a match between the pair, which would certainly prove a big drawing card.

"Alcedo wins by a nose" was the verdict of the first race, which was at a mile and seventy yards, for three-year-olds, and in doing so Pat Dunne's colt showed quite a bit of speed and a great deal of stamina. Alcedo was ridden by Devin, and it seemed that the other boys in the race were trying to obstruct him as much as possible. At any rate they bumped and jostled and interfered in every way with him all down the backstretch and tried to shut him off on the turn for home, but Devin got through all right. He had trouble, however, in overhauling Lamachus, who was in front. At the eighth about a length separated Alcedo and the leader and Alcedo was then under keen pressure. Devin was whipping and urging him for all he was worth, and it was seemingly dollars to doughnuts that he would not get up, but in the last twenty yards Lamachus hung a trifle and Alcedo, coming on with bull-dog tenacity, managed to get up in time to poke his nose in front. The colt ran a grand race and was warmly received when Devin brought him back to the stand.

Directly on top of Alcedo's game showing came a sensational finish between Garry Hermann and Alard Scheck. Tommy Burns was on the latter and Boland rode Garry Hermann, and this afforded the public an opportunity to get a line on the two boys, and Burns rode so much the better race that he made Boland's stanch admirers take off their hats to him. In the first place Burns went away from the post flying, then he took the shortest route and when it came to a finish he so far outrode Boland that he came within an ace of making a colt much Garry Hermann's inferior beat him. As it was, Garry Hermann, with the reins flapping on his neck and Boland rolling all over him, displayed great gameness and won a well-earned victory.

The mile handicap was a good one, The Elector carrying top weight, winning like a good horse. W. Wilson rode The Elector and handled him cleverly, being in a good position all the way and never making a move until the stretch was reached. Sam Fullen, under miserable handling, finished second and The Lady third.

Sly never was in such excellent form as she is at the present time, and the way she disposed of a fast lot of sprinters, with 119 pounds on her back, was a caution. The game daughter of Racine—Aurelia II. was outrun the first part of the race by Reminder, but when straightened away for home Sly slowly but surely wore Reminder down and at the end won going away in 1:13. Algareta came fast in the last quarter and easily beat the tiring Reminder for second place.

Topmast gave his backers an attack of heart disease in the last race. The old campaigner was well backed at a favorite's price and when going down the back stretch did not seem to have a ghost of a chance, but in the last quarter when the leaders were becoming weary, Topmast came with a wild rush and won rather handily.

It was reported that Cherry Leaf broke down in his work yesterday.

RULED OFF THE TURF.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 26.—Owner F. Hogan, trainer John Henderson, D. Routhan, Wm. Clayton and the horses Maidstone and Senator Sherman, are ruled off the turf. Jockey Howell, trainer W. B. Howell and J. Mardner are denied all privileges including admission to the grounds of the St. Louis Fair Association.

J. A. MURPHY, Secretary.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

When the American Derby of 1900, run at Chicago Saturday and won by Sidney Lucas, is thoughtfully considered it must be admitted that the winner is a horse of stern quality. Although he was a despised outsider in the betting, a review of the work of the Derby winner in his two and three-year-old form shows him well worth fitting for such an event as the American Derby, and that he won it was, probably, no great surprise to his owners, Thompson Bros. On the tenth day of last April Sidney Lucas won the first race on the card at Washington, D. C. Since then he has had a rest of over two months, with one exception, his out in the Canadian Derby. Previous to April 10 of this year, Sidney Lucas, in his three-year-old form, started twenty-four times. He was in the money sixteen times, with six wins and ten place and show credits on his record. In his two-year-old form he made twenty-four starts, was in the money sixteen times and had nine wins and seven place and show credits. He has a record, made as a two-year-old, which no other youngster in the land can boast of.

On November 15, 1899, he won two races in succession at Washington, D. C. The first race was an all-age event at six and a half furlongs, and with 112 pounds up he won easily, beating a fair field in 1:23. The next race was a two-year-old scramble at five furlongs, and he came right back and won in a driving finish in 1:02. If ever a thoroughbred has been drilled Sidney Lucas has. The recent rest received by the good son of Top Gallant—Addie C. II. has revealed what a good race horse Sidney Lucas is, and it will stand as a lasting lesson to owners and trainers that a let-up on a good horse once in awhile may reap just such a harvest as Winner—Ch. h. by Friar's Balsam—Mavourneen.

Went to post at 2:30. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. The first two had the race between them through the entire route. Gold 'Or showed her usual speed and set a merry clip, but tired in the run through the stretch. Voter found the early pace a bit too much for him. Spencer was hard at work on him turning into the stretch, and he outgamed Gold 'Or in a hot finish. The others were outclassed.

Scratched—18648 Richard J., 126; 18707 Belle of Lexington, 115; 18675 Mayor Gilroy, 113.

Voter, place, out. Gold 'Or, place, 1 to 2; show, out. Hammock, show, 2 to 5.

Winner—B. h. by Knight of Ellerslie—Dearest.

Went to post at 3:35. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Knight of the Garter had the best of the weights, was a good horse to-day and was drawing away at the finish. Maid of Harlem ran a good race and closed gamely under punishment. The Kentuckian pulled up lame in both forelegs. Lord Baltimore showed speed for six furlongs and then was done.

Scratched—18798 Colonel Roosevelt, 109; 18708 Prince of Melbourne, 108.

Went to post at 5:10. At post 9 minutes. Start good. Won hard ridden; second driving.
The grass course suited Dolando. He was well up throughout, but was tiring at the end and had to be hustled to win. Bombshell made up a lot of ground and was closing fast at the end.
Lady Massey ran her race. King Barleycorn quit when the pinch came in the last sixteenth.
Piccola was shut out at the start. Anjou can do better. Oliver Mc was eased up when he had no chance to win.

Winner—B. c. by Esher—Elopement.
Went to post at 2:30. At post 4 minutes. Start good. The quartette were driving to the limit. Alcedo was far the best, and had to be to win. He ran a smashing good race and displayed great gameness. It seemed that the other jockeys in the race had it in for Devin and Alcedo and bumped and jostled the colt repeatedly when going down the backstretch. Devin tried numerous times to get through on the inside, but at each attempt was sharply shut off. From the head of the stretch home Alcedo was under the whip and barely managed to get up in time to win. Lamachus was cleverly ridden and ran a good, game race. Florizar went away from the post all tangled up and never got straightened out until the stretch was reached, then he made up a lot of ground. Pupil showed speed, but stopped badly after going three quarters, and was staggering at the finish.

Alcedo, place, out. Lamachus, place, 4 to 5; show, out. Florizar, place, evens; show, out.

Winner—Br. c. by Esher—Silk Gown.
Went to post at 3:05. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won in a long, hard drive of two; third and fourth doing their best. Gary Hermann is a grand colt and ran a grand race. He was poorly managed and won on his own courage. Boland went away from the post whipping the colt and never did take a good tight hold of his head. He is a loafer and must have strong handling, and in this instance Boland did not fill the bill. Burns' ride on Alard Scheck was a brilliant one. He got the colt away flying, took the shortest route and at the end put up a masterly finish. If Burns had been on Gary Hermann that colt would have won off by himself. Paleitou is better than an ordinary colt and ran a good, game race. Schoolmaster had a rough journey, and, this considered, made a good showing. Henry Burt was prominent for about three furlongs and then tired as though short. Mark this youngster for early action. He has worked fast.

Garry Hermann, place, 1 to 4; show, out. Alard Scheck, place, 3 to 5; show, out. Paleitou, show, 8 to 1.

Winner—Ch. f. by Russell—Memoria.
Went to post at 3:40. Off at the first break to a fair start. Won easily. The next four were doing their best. As the race was run Miss Bennett was the best, and after being roughly treated on the far turn she came away at the end like a good filly. She is truly a filly of high class and will probably improve from this race, as rumor had it she was not at her best. Lady Schorr got away flying, ran well and hung on gamely at the end. From a poor beginning Fancy Wood made up ground throughout and finished strongly. Mauga's race was a smashing good one. She was bumped and badly interfered with shortly after the start and then made up much ground. Sofala's race was a disappointment. She was off well but did not seem to have much speed. Tenny Belle showed her usual turn of speed, but the early pace told on her and she stopped in the stretch.

Miss Bennett, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Lady Schorr, place, 3 to 1; show, 7 to 5. Fancy Wood, show, 3 to 1. Sofala, place, out.

Winner—Br. h. by Hanover—Lady Abbess.
Went to post at 4:10. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly at the end after an early drive. The next four were under keen pressure. The Elector is in rare form, and under a good ride ran a fine race. Wilson was always in a good position and never tried to get to the front until the stretch was reached, then he made his move and The Elector responded finely. Sam Fullen took the longest route and was generally poorly handled, but ran a high class race. The Lady ran finely under her 98 pounds. The chances are she would have been nearer the front than she was if Knight had not made his move so soon. Andes was closing stoutly at the end, but is nowhere near his best New Orleans form. Greatland and The Lady In Blue both showed speed. The Elector, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Sam Fullen, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5. The Lady, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—B. m. by Racine—Aurelia II.
Went to post at 4:45. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily at the end after a hard early drive. The next three were under keen pressure. Sly is a good, game mare, and is in excellent form. She was hustled all the way to keep up and at the head of the stretch faltered for an instant, but when Buchanan applied the whip she came again gamely. Algareta was close up all the way and stood the pressure gamely at the end. She is an honest filly, but hardly classes with Sly. Reminder set a terrific pace and gained a big lead early, but when the pinch came at the end he tired badly and would have been beaten for third place in another stride. Yellow Tail was outrun in the first part of the race, but finished resolutely and will probably be hard to beat from now on. Highland Lad ran a fair race.

Winner—Ch. g. by Top Gallant—Essay.
Went to post at 5:10. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won hand ridden. There was sharp action behind the winner. Topmast is in good form and galloped over the others in the stretch as though they were tied. The old gelding could not keep up in the early part of the race, but when the leaders began to tire he was there with a fine turn of speed. Bitter Root was keyed up to concert pitch, and came near landing. As it was he ran a good race and is in winning form. Chappaqua made a creditable showing. Handpress seems to be of little or no present account, and in the stretch, when he appeared to have a winning chance, he quit like a coward. Emigre was prominent for about three quarters, but died away at the end.

Winner—B. m, by Free Knight—Alice A.
Went to post at 5:16. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won in a hard drive of three. Sam Lazarus could not get through soon enough and looked the best. The first two staggered in. Lanza, off none too well, closed with determination. Bonnivard had a troublesome journey. Libbie ran an honest race and finished stoutly, although nearly exhausted. La Mascota ran well, but tired near the finish. Sam Lazarus was hampered and could not get through until it was too late. He was probably best. Lanza made up much ground. Aunt Maggie displayed early speed.
Scratched—18661 Mona B., 99.
Overweights—Marie G. Brown, 3 pounds.
Libbie, place, 15 to 1; show, 8 to 1. La Mascota, place, 3 to 1; show, 8 to 5. Sam Lazarus, show, evens. Marie G. Brown, place, evens; show, 1 to 2.
